Review Criteria

1.	The intellectual significance of the proposed project, including its value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both.

- Items referenced in the narrative need not appear in the bibliography, if the citation in the narrative enables readers to identify the work.
- The bibliography should consist of primary and secondary sources that relate directly to the project.
- Include works that pertain to both the project's substance and its theoretical or methodological approaches to give a well-rounded representation of your project.
- Evaluators will use the bibliography to assess your knowledge of the subject area.
- Your bibliography will be considered primarily under review criterion 1.
