Before you leave for the summer, we would like to invite you to submit a proposal by August 16 to be considered for nomination for the $6,000 2023 National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Stipend The FAC will select Kenyon's two allotted nominees, who will then need to refine their proposals for submission to NEH by September 21, 2022. More details can be found here.

The Office for Sponsored Faculty Projects (OSFP) has created a helpful template specifically for developing this proposal, and would be delighted to work with you either individually or, if there is enough interest, perhaps via a series of workshops or through asynchronous means with follow-up discussions. Please reach out to OSFP@kenyon.edu if you are interested in any of those options.

All proposals must include the following:

- ☐ Narrative (3 page limit-single spaced)
- ☐ 1-page bibliography
- ☐ 2-page resume or CV
- ☐ Appendices (only if required) (for editions/translations, database project, visual materials)
- ☐ Documentation of degree conferrals or explanation of federal debt
- ☐ 1000-character summary of your proposal
- ☐ Two letters of reference (due by October 15, 2022)
  - ➢ Note: no budget is required
