AICUO Annual Survey, Fall 2016, Part III: Distance Learning

2. Distance Learning Enrollments, 2015-16

Each year, the eStudent Services Division of OH-Tech — the new entity that has subsumed the role of the Ohio Learning Network and OhioLearns.org — seeks information on distance learning at all Ohio institutions. OhioLearns.org lists courses in both public and independent sectors. Their annual report lists extensive data on public campus activity, but would have nothing about independent-college students without your answer to this query.

"Distance Learning" is broadly described as the process of extending the majority of learning (70% or greater) or delivering instructional resource-sharing opportunities to locations away from the classroom site using video, audio, computer, multimedia communications or some combination of these with other traditional delivery methods.

Note: We are seeking a total per-section headcount, which assumes there will be some duplication in the enrollment headcount.

A. Number of sections in 2015-16

B. Headcount enrollment in all distance learning sections

3. First-generation Undergraduates, Fall 2016

We continue to receive inquiries from legislators and other policymakers about the share of students who are the first generation in their families to attend college. As for several years we have been unable to obtain an estimate of this figure from the Ohio Department of Higher Education, we are asking you to provide this information to us. Your campus financial aid director may be able to assist you in determining which of your undergraduates fall into this first-generation category.

For which academic year or term are you reporting data?

- Fall 2015
- 2015-16 (12 month unduplicated)
- Fall 2016
- Other year (please specify)

"First generation" undergraduates are those who answered questions 24 and 25 on their FAFSAs indicating that neither parent had attended college; that is, they checked answer 1 or 2 on both questions.
