Check it out!

While you're in town...

The Gund Gallery. The Gund Gallery is Kenyon's 31,000 square-foot space dedicated to expanding ways of seeing and learning. Explore the current exhibit Feast: Radical Hospitality in Contemporary Art.

Brown Family Environmental Center. Find out how the BFEC can become a part of your science studies or volunteer experience at Kenyon. Explore our center, gardens, and trails. Ask us for easy walking or driving directions!

Kenyon Athletic Center. Come see the home of the Lords and the Ladies! Our $80 million facility features a pool, track, workout rooms, racquet sports courts, basketball courts, movie theater, coaches' offices, and a smoothie bar all under one four acre roof. Open all day.

The Kenyon Farm. One of the country's few entirely student-run farms, it promotes sustainable agriculture, provides food to the community, and educates Kenyon students about where their food comes from. Drop by to see the chickens, ducks, turkeys, goats, bees, and much more. Ask us for directions! (Please feel free to look around but remember this is a working farm).
