American Studies – Kenyon College

Dalton Fellowship for American Studies

The Dalton Fellowship Award is an annual collegiate award for the student who has done the best work in American Studies. It provides support towards tuition for graduate work in American Studies and must be used within three years of graduation. A proposed graduate program of study and evidence of leadership ability and character are required.

Dalton Fellowship Establishment Information:

Henry G. Dalton Memorial Fund

Established in 1946 in memory of Henry G. Dalton, senior partner of Pickands, Mather, and Company and a former trustee of the College. The income is awarded by the Fellowship Committee to student(s) who pursue graduate work in American Studies in the United States. The fellow is asked to give a report to the Fellowship Committee at the end of his or her year of graduate study.
