| QUIET PERIOD | | | | | - Resume in-person extracurricular activities, following student organization guidelines.
- Gather in small groups (10 people or fewer), with masks and physical distancing.
- Students may have one guest per resident in their room or apartment (not to exceed 10 attendees total).
- Residence hall lounges are restricted to residents of that hall, except for lounges designated as study spaces.
| GATHERINGS AND GUESTS | | | | | - Minimize movement around campus as well as interactions with others.
- Outdoor meetings (10 people or fewer) while masked and physically distanced are fine.
- Students in traditional residence halls are not permitted to have another student in their room.
- Apartments are limited to residents only.
| CLASS ATTENDANCE | | | | | - Attend class after receiving one negative test result or receiving clearance to resume activities following quarantine or isolation.
- Students who have received a positive test result, are symptomatic or have received official quarantine orders should notify their faculty members to make arrangements. Please note that in-person classes are not expected to be offered in hybrid formats.
- Masks are required while in class.
| PEIRCE DINING | | | | | - Peirce Dining Hall is open for take-out only until Feb. 8, when it opens for in-person dining.
- Students must receive two negative test results before eating in Peirce or receive clearance to resume activities following quarantine or isolation.
- Only take-out meals are available to students in quarantine.
- Peirce reintroduces expanded hours on Feb. 15
| COVID-19 TESTING | | | | | - Students self-administer tests multiple times during the quiet period — once upon arrival and once each week during the quiet period.
- Testing takes place at the Lowry Center during the quiet period.
- Students who fail to appear for testing will be placed on interim suspension and removed from campus.
- Testing moves to the Gund Commons Ballroom beginning March 1.
- 25% of students will be tested weekly.
| LOWRY CENTER HOURS | | | | | - The athletics facilities in Lowry Center open for limited hours beginning Feb. 1.
- Students may reserve workout times using the KenyonFit app, provided they have received one negative test result or clearance to resume activities following quarantine or isolation.
