

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

Monday, January 21, 2019
3:00 pm - 5:00 pm
Rosse Hall Auditorium

The Kenyon College Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Dialogue highlights his legacy and connects it to current issues that affect the campus and the world.

This year's keynote speaker will be Dr. Leslie Harris, professor of history at Northwestern University, whose talk is titled, "Community is a Verb: Access and Equity in Higher Education."

Preliminary schedule:

3 p.m. Selection performed by the Chamber Singers

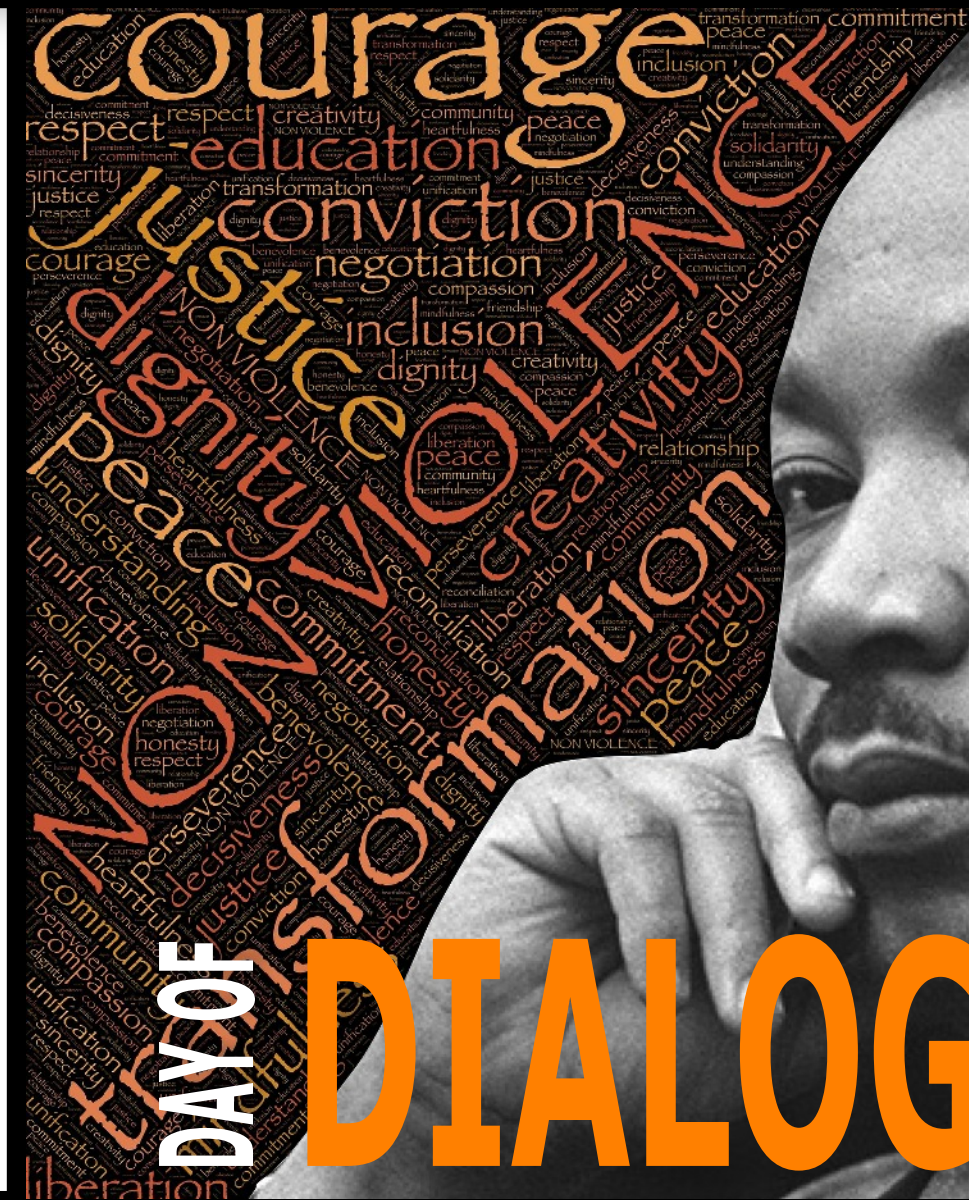

3:10 p.m. Welcome by President Decatur

3:20 p.m. Keynote by Dr. Leslie Harris

4:10 p.m. Selection performed by the Chamber Singers

4:20 p.m. Panel and Q&A with Kenyon community members

5 p.m. Closing remarks

In honor of this day, and to allow students, faculty, and staff to participate in the day's events, our next MATH MONDAY will be on January 28.