

kenyon.edu/odei

2016

history month

LGBTQ+ History at Kenyon

Tuesday, Oct. 4 - 11:10 a.m.-noon

Community Foundation Theater

Celebrate LGBTQ+ Awareness Month by learning about the history of LGBTQ+ life at Kenyon with Tom Stamp '73, college historian and keeper of Kenyoniana.

That Gay 5k

Saturday, Oct. 8 - 8:10 a.m.-noon

Kent State University

Faculty, staff and students are invited to support the Kent State LGBTQ Center and celebrate LGBTQ+ Awareness Month. This 5K is open to both walkers and runners and takes place on an ADA-accessible route. To attend, register with Jillian Watts, wattsj@kenyon.edu, by Thursday, Oct. 6.

National Coming Out Day

Tuesday, Oct. 11 - All day

Now in its 28th year, National Coming Out Day celebrates the lives of LGBTQ+ individuals and allies. Both members of the LGBTQ+ community and allies are invited to wear rainbow colors to show support and advocacy.

Out at Work

Tuesday, Oct. 11 - 11:10 a.m.-noon

Leach Dining Room, Peirce Hall

Bring your lunch and your questions, comments and tips about being out at work and the job search process. Leslie Harding, associate director of career development, and Jillian Watts, assistant director of the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, host. Faculty, staff, students and allies are welcome.

Candlelight Vigil

Friday, Oct. 14 - 7 p.m.

Upside-down tree

Join Kenyon faculty, staff and students and Knox County community members in remembering lives lost due to hate-based violence.

Friday Night OUT

Friday, Oct. 21 9-11:45 p.m.

Peirce Pub

Friday Night OUT is an event that will take place once a month to provide a space for Kenyon's LGBTQ+ community and allies to socialize, network, meet new people and enjoy queer karaoke.

Kenyon OUT on the Town LGBTQ+ Club Night

Saturday, Oct. 22 - 9 p.m.

Axis Night Club (18+) in Columbus

Kenyon is taking over Columbus! Axis Night Club will be hosting a Halloween costume contest and dance party, and faculty, staff, students and allies are welcome to attend. Limited seats are available on campus vans. Transportation is first-come, first-served. Register with Jillian Watts, wattsj@kenyon.edu

Monogamous Relationships, Sexual Exploration and Hook-Ups: Let's Talk Sex

Thursday, Oct. 27 - 4:30-5:30 p.m.

Community Foundation Theater

Using a sex-positive lens, this conversation demystifies sexuality and romantic attractions, talks about safe sex within straight and queer communities, and explores asexuality.

Kenyon College

calendar.kenyon.edu